

Ocean Haus

Contemporary / Resort

Inspired by the unobstructed views of the Indian Ocean and nestled between nature this multi-level home will impress the most discerning client. Sitting elevated this home is impressive with its expansive floor plan, yet still able to suit a growing family's needs. Two generous guest suites can be found on both levels allowing flexibility where needed. In addition, a private alfresco located at the rear can also be used for the more intimate get together. Free form living and the balcony combine as the entertainer's dream taking advantage of its views.

